FACTS

11. Varites first started working for ICE on October 19, 1998 as ICE's Controller and then subsequently as Chief Financial Officer. He maintained that position through his termination on April 3, 2006.

12. Varites, in his position as Chief Financial Officer, had access to ICE's confidential financial information. He was authorized to write checks for legitimate business purposes on ICE's bank accounts, including its petty cash account.

13. ICE terminated Varites' employment on April 3, 2006. It was agreed, however, that Varites would continue to be present to assist ICE in its transition to a new Chief Financial Officer.

14. The successor Chief Financial Officer started with ICE on April 10, 2006. Later that morning, it was discovered that Varites had entered the school around 7:00 AM and committed suicide in a staff bathroom.

15. Varites left a suicide note apologizing for actions that he had kept from ICE over the years.

16. Due to the circumstances surrounding Varites' death, the nature and substance of Varites' admission in the suicide note, and certain inconsistencies between what he had told other members of management at ICE regarding the health of his family members and what ICE learned to be the actual facts, ICE launched an investigation into its finances.

17. ICE's investigation revealed that, over the course of his 8 year tenure with ICE, Varites, without authorization and solely for his own personal gain, wrote numerous checks on ICE's bank accounts, which he used to pay his personal expenses, including, but not limited to, car payments, telephone services, landscaping services and life insurance premiums.

18. True and complete copies of examples of unauthorized checks written by Varites and revealed by ICE's investigation to date are in Exhibit 1 attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

19. ICE's investigation further revealed that, over the course of his 8 year tenure with ICE, Varites forged the signatures of various ICE officers on checks written on ICE's bank accounts, and deposited the checks into his own personal account. See Exhibit 1.

20. The results of ICE's investigation to date has further revealed that Varites wrote 1,438 checks in unauthorized petty cash checks during the period from 1999 through 2006 totaling in excess of $1,500,000.00. A detailed log setting forth the date, number, amount, and payee on each unauthorized check is attached hereto and incorporated by reference as Exhibit 2.

21. Letters testamentary were issued to Catherine Varites on April 24, 2006. Catherine Varites is the Executrix and Administratrix of the Estate of Edward Varites.

22. On April 24, 2006, Judgment was entered by the Bergen County Surrogate's Court admitting the March 27, 1985 Last Will and Testament of Edward Varites to Probate.

23. Catherine Varites is the sole beneficiary under Edward Varites' March 27, 1985 Last Will and Testament.

26. 28. Varites' misrepresentations and/or omissions were made with the knowledge that they were material, the intent to mislead ICE into relying on said misrepresentations and/or omissions, and to deprive ICE of its assets.

29. ICE justifiably relied on Varites, as its Chief Financial Officer and fiduciary, to only use its bank accounts for authorized business expenses.

30. ICE justifiably relied on Varites' misrepresentations and/or omissions to its detriment.

31. ICE's resulting damage was proximately caused by its reliance on Varites' misrepresentations and/or omissions.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff ICE demands judgment against the Estate of Edward Varites for the total amount of unauthorized payments together with interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just under the circumstances.
